Foreword

When the present time has come to be the past, we are left only with memories of what has gone before. This year's Krabba is to be just such a memory

The KRABBA

MISS ELIZABETH HARWOOD BOYENTON

Dedication

It is with a deep feeling of appreciation and gratitude that we dedicate this volume of the Krabba to one whose hard work and ingenuity has so helped our High School Annual

Class History '41

CHAPTER I

September 5, 1937

A group of youngsters gazed in awe at the portals of this high school. That group of gawky youths is the graduating class of 1941.

When the customary pranks played upon the freshmen by the high and mighty upper classmen were over, we settled down to work and to the task of adapting ourselves to this seemingly tremendous school.

Football season saw our team, pre-game underdog, rise from the depths and set a strong Newport News team to shame, but fate robbed us of a victory. The game ended in a scoreless tie.

By Christmas we were beginning to get into the swing of things, but alas! we could not escape from the fact that we were lowly freshmen. However, better things were in store for us.

CHAPTER II

September 5, 1938

Returning from our summer vacation, we entered school with a spirit of eager anticipation because no longer were we the lowly rats of the preceding year. We no longer stood in meek humility before the upper classmen. We were the upper classmen.

As we developed as sophomores, we began to take more interest in the various activities. First, we witnessed a successful football season, and little did we realize that our team would carry our colors through a very difficult schedule and thereby win the State Championship for the first time in our school history.

Dramatic Club plays were ever a source of joy in those years.

This year, Stephen Olds was elected president, John Stoner, vice-president, Dick Rowell, secretary-treasurer.

With our interest rapidly mounting, we managed to exist through the spring term with its many and varied activities.

CHAPTER III

September 5, 1939

Juniors at last! The long-awaited day when we should have a voice in the affairs of the school had arrived. This year we found the recurrence of term examinations in our school curriculum. We settled down to hard work and diligent study.

As time flew so came the task of organizing our class. We elected the following officers: President, Phil James; vice-president, Jane Whelchel; secretary-treasurer, Dick Rowell.

Spring came with its balmy breezes so very conducive to spring fever. Now it was our turn to give the Junior-Senior Prom. Reluctantly we bid them farewell, for within their eyes also, could we see that which we should experience later. So, away we went, for at long last summer had arrived.

CHAPTER IV

September 5, 1940

Seniors! A pleasant yet sad thought; pleasant in that soon we would be moving on to bigger and better things; sad in that we should leave such pleasant things.

By now exams held no terror for us; we had become used to them. We studied and passed our fall term classes.

Football season closed with our being able to state that not once during our four years in school had our team bowed in defeat before our traditional rival, the Gold and Blue of Newport News.

After a very successful basketball season, again came the choice of officers: president, Dong Broad; vice-president, Margaret Spencer; secretary, John Hatten; treasurer, Billy Thigpen.

Now time flew, for our days as seniors were drawing short; our rings were ordered, and we were fitted for the caps and gowns. We have one more period of study, then graduation. We are the graduating class of 1941.

We are not the first, and we shall not be the last; in our hearts, as in those of many others, shall reign an inescapable spirit of sadness. As we leave Hampton High School, we close behind us the scenes of our joyous and care-free youth.

Yet, we find a solace still, for tomorrow there is college and happiness within our clasp.

Tomorrow is another day.

THE END

PHIL JAMES.

Prophecy

June 8, 1951.

Dear Diary:

This day marks one of the happiest days of my life. It was a class reunion of the '41 graduating class assembled in the ballroom of the Rochester Hill-Top House located in downtown Hamptonia.

A rather good-looking old chap came walking toward me; it was Mr. Herman Holbrook from Hollywood, who has been for the past ten years trying to run Charles Hopkins, a glamor boy, out of a job, but he almost lost it on account of Bruce Wood, a handsome cowboy, who went 'way out west looking for more women to love. Speaking of women, Mr. D. N. Foster, who is chief photographer for the Hollywood Tribune, showed me a few snapshots of Miss Irma Dell Moore and Miss Catherine Mingee who are competing for the grand title "Miss Hollywood." Strutting on over to the bar of this lovely paradise to get a short root-beer, I met Charles, I mean "Zombie," aw, you know whom I mean, "Chigger" Bowman, who owns all the pin-ball machines on the Peninsula. He said he had fixed the machines up so that he was the only one who knew how to hit them. In the midst of this earnest conversation Henry Scott and Roland Begor, head barkers at Roy Johnson's poolroom, came over and said that Wendell Fuller, million-dollar playboy, had taken fifty-four dollars out of the machine. At this word, "Chigger" flew away.

Finally reaching the bar to get me a root-beer, whom should I see as bartender but none other than "Chuck" McGehee, but as I began to talk to him Melvin Tennis, head janitor of J. E. Faris' Department Store, was starting a fight with Assistant-Janitor Eric Schoonmaker to see who was going to dance with one of the "Five Pennies" (that is five chorus girls) who were Theonia Tucker, Elizabeth Tucker, Evelyn De Ryder, Sadie Dunn, and Florence Lee Timberlake. "Chuck" called for his bouncers three, who were Howard Smith, Kenneth Burbank, and Robert Read. They took the situation well in hand. After I recovered from this unnecessary disturbance, I listened to Bobby Poe and his "Tick Tock Maulers" play Bryan Smither's red hot version of "Slap Happy Pete Ragging Out the Jungle Beat" with Grayson Dixon tooting that trumpet. The next piece they played was especially for "Bootsie" Gammon, who is the country's No. 1 jitter girl, and she selected Mr. William Smith, instructor of the "Five Pennies," to dance with her. Sitting down to a table, I called a waitress to bring me a glass of water (I think it was water). On her way back she tripped and spilled it all over my coat. Looking up disgustedly, I saw Rose Gay Council and Dotty Reptogle, two waitresses, sitting on the floor laughing heartily over bumping into each other. Ignoring this silly symphony, I wandered over to a table where the happy lovebirds spooned. Mr. Joseph Ankeney, still a bachelor, was there to keep order among Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wade, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kelly, and Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Hutchins, all of whom are still happily married. Suddenly Miss Jane Whelchel and Miss Kate Thompson, New York career-women, came up and said a mysterious-looking man had been following them around. Mr. Frank Lawson, handsome state trooper, began an investigation, assisted by Mr. Allan Wright, super-sleuth. After a while it turned out to be the man with the "Charles Atlas" build, George H. Wintermute, who is now a deck-chair tender on a submarine. George said that Mr. Stuart Gibson and Mr. James Jester, authorities on women, stated that was a very good way to win your women.

I thought the reunion would be broken up when Eugene Edmonds, famous heavyweight boxer, tangled with Eugene Routten, Olympic star. As Mr. Routten started to run away from Mr. Edmonds, he bumped into the Johnsons, Charles and Ernest, makers of Johnson's Candle Stick Wax, cutting their heads severely. The Doctors, Floyd Carneal and Lloyd Wasteott were summoned, and they called for six pretty nurses who were Phoebe Fulcher, Ruth Etta Saunders, Ida Todd, Hazel Turner, Dorothy Lambert, and Leah Levin. After each one had kissed the Johnson boys, all wanted to try it again.

Getting back on the more pleasant side of things, Mr. Robin Pollock, still a maker of Model-T's, with Mr. Warren Spratley, sole distributor, told me that he couldn't see his old pal, Doug Broad, a handsome life guard at Buckroe Beach, any more because there were so many girls crowded around him all the time. However, it has been rumored that a certain young woman by the name of Miss Nixon, who is famous on the stage and screen, suddenly has taken up swimming. Excusing myself from Mr. Pollock, I strolled around and recognized Governor James talking to Senator Pearce. They were debating the question of appropriating money for Pond and Anderson, those two airplane pilots, to fly over an island in the Chesapeake Bay to hunt for Carter and Ammer, two great scientists experimenting on a new kind of dynamite.

Miss Audrey Wilson and Miss Dolores Walker, private secretaries of Governor James and Senator Pearce, respectively, had a telegram saying there were no more islands in the bay, so the subject was dropped. Wondering what to do next, I heard a trumpet ring in my ear. Mr. Thomas Whiting silenced everything and announced that Mr. Marvin Simmons, leader of what used to be Fred Waring's Orchestra, had been requested by Miss Margaret Spence and Miss Betty Turnbull, head of the Bachelor Woman's Club, to lead the orchestra while the Glee Club sang, "I Hear You Big Daddy You Must Be Near." As Marvin directed the orchestra and the Glee Club sang, I picked out Kit Sinclair, Dorothy Luther, Erah Hatten, Janice Reed, Bill Thigpen, Vivian Strailman, and Ford Thompson; all of their voices were so beautiful and sounded too loud. Mr. John Hatten, opera star, and Miss Elsie Worster, blues singer, sang a beautiful duet. Leaving my old chumbuddies, I got my hat and coat from Peck's check stand and bought a package of cigarettes from Gerry Alion, a cigarette girl, took Kraft's taxi, and went home.

Dear Diary, as I scan the senior roll and see the rest of the class names in black and white, I know they have had all the success in the world. Surely the future to all of us does mean, "All This and Heaven Too."

DAVID LARNER, JR.

Class Poem

*Four years have gone by since we came,
A sprightly time we've had;
Enlarging Hampton's hall of fame,
Endorsing every fad.*

*Though things have happened to us all,
To each and every one;
Since that first eventful fall,
We've all had lots of fun.*

*We watched with glee the classes go,
Like strikes of one, two, three;
Our spirits whetted to a glow,
Cause now we're next you see.*

*Good-bye to Jones and Stevens too,
The sponsors of our class;
We now feel that our hours too few,
Have gone by much too fast.*

*But we should feel so glad I know,
That now we are so free;
Instead we're leaving dog-gone slow,
Not as fast as we thought we'd be.*

*Oh Gec, I feel that I could gush,
With all the sorrow felt;
With all that sentimental slush,
I know your heart would melt.*

*It's awful to be leaving here,
That's all that I can say;
You all have grown to be quite dear,
And school is quite "okay."*

Student Assistants

Student Assistants are Junior and Senior girls who assist in the Office and Study Halls, aid new students in orientating themselves, and act as hostesses at school functions.

The purpose of the organization is to provide a medium of growth for girls and to promote student understanding of administrative problems.

The requirements are:

- Regularity in attendance.
- Satisfactory effort in work.
- Neat appearance.
- General desire to work agreeably and efficiently.
- Respect for student body and faculty.

The Audiographic Staff is a school service organization selected from students in the Vocational Department. The staff provides for the school a corps of trained operators for the motion picture equipment, visual aids and for sound amplifying equipment used in connection with the school's program.

The Audiographic Staff meets each week for discussion of some of the types of equipment used, and individual members fill assignments for operation of equipment whenever necessary. Discussion at the weekly forum is designed to qualify the staff's members to set up, operate, and care for the school's light projecting and sound amplifying equipment in a way that will assure its most satisfactory operation.

Boys' Camera Club

The Boys' Camera Club was founded in November, 1939, by Mr. Richard H. Gibson, Instructor of Mechanical Drawing in Hampton High School. Its membership is composed of fifteen boys who are interested in Photography and have maintained satisfactory citizenship during their membership.

The main purpose of this club is to promote the educational value of Photography, through discussion and participation.

Science Club

The Hampton High School Science Club was founded in October of 1940. Its purpose, as set forth by the charter members, is to further interest in everyday science among the members of the student body.

Through the efforts of its sponsor, Mr. Paul Musselman, it has been able to obtain an affiliation with the American Institute of Science and Engineering Clubs.

With the aid of funds obtained through the sale of programs at various Hampton football games, the members have been able to buy extra scientific equipment.

Mixed Chorus

Mixed Chorus

(First Appearance)

- (1) Christmas Concert—with the Band.
- (2) State Festival in Richmond. April 4—where they did the finest work of the season.
- (3) Outdoor spring festival in the Darling Memorial Park, May 18, where all the bands and choruses of the High Schools on the Peninsula take part.
- (4) Mixed Chorus sang for Commencement and Class Day, June, 1941, and also for several assembly programs.
- (5) From Mixed Chorus was picked a fine girls' Chorus and boys' Chorus. The girls gave many concerts and performances at P. T. A. meetings and Woman's Club and Open House on April 22. From that group was chosen an active sextet. From the boys' chorus, was also chosen a boys' double quartet.

Band

Instructor, Mrs. Marie P. Burke

The Hampton High School Band, directed by Marie Burke, has had a very busy and successful year. During the football season the Band and Drum Major, Billy Weston, performed for all the games. In December the Band and Mixed Chorus gave a concert in the Auditorium. In April the Band competed in the State Musical Festival at Richmond, where they played two difficult selections, "Richard III" overture and "Spiritual Rivers." The Band placed third in the State of all the class "A" schools, which is a splendid record since the band was organized only four years ago. In addition to providing music for all the High School Plays and some civic events, the Band provided music for the Class Night and Commencement exercises.

Garrick Dramatics Club Plays

The Garrick Dramatics Club of Hampton High School was founded April 15, 1932, by R. E. T. Lewis, Mrs. Kathryn Pace Cameron and Mrs. Margaret Patrick Wood.

The club took its name from David Garrick, a well known eighteenth century actor.

The requirements for membership are interest in dramatics, satisfactory scholarship, and participation in school activities. Through the support of the faculty and student body of Hampton High School, the Dramatics Club has been able to produce many successful plays, such as: "The Whole Town's Talking," "Highness," "As You Like It," "The Valiant," "Pierrot—His Play," "She Stoops to Conquer," "El Cristo," "Spooks," "Remember the Day," "Leave It to Psmith," "Try It With Alice," "Night of January 16th," "The Brat," "The Bat," "Footloose," and "Bridal Chorus."

This year was the Garrick Dramatics Club's ninth successful season. Its fall production was "Swing Fever," a new rollicking high school comedy in three acts, by Esther E. Olsen, combining all the elements that make for popularity, fun, a picture of real American life, youth's eagerness to dance and a rapid live plot.

The play was given two nights with separate casts for each night.

Thursday night's cast was as follows: David Larner, Jeanette Diggs, Dorothy Lambert, Dolores Walker, Herman Holbrook, Gaynelle Nixon, Henry Ammer, Peaches Gandy, John Hughes, Betty Cock, Anne Edmonds, Andy Pugh, Weldon Allen and Arleigh Simpson.

Friday night's cast: Jack Kolcum, Marguerite Price, Leah Levin, Dolores Walker, Douglass Broad, Kate Thompson, Edgar Cole, Lorella Muiere, Charles Davidson, Doris Davenport, Jackie Gunther, Ernest Johnson, Richard Ruggles and Vivian Cumming.

Jeanne Tillery was Student Director and the Business Staff was as follows: Student Business Manager, Vivian Sealey; Publicity Manager, Pat Isley; Assistants, Florence Timberlake, Billy Thigpen, Mary Lou Payne, and Frances Gwin; Sales Manager, John Hatten; Assistants, Rosalind Marshall, Ann Wilson, Margaret Kirkpatrick, Willadean Morris, Vivian Strailman, Audrey Wilson and Babe Hughes.

The following served on the stage: Manager, Edgar Peters; Electrician, Bob White; Engineer, William Thurman; Carpenter, Milton Melson; Properties, Robert Pollock and Helen Scott; Wardrobe, Frances Gwin; Assistants, James Woolvin, Charlotte Freeman, and Betty Turnbull; Make-up, Babe Hughes, Virginia Crenshaw, Louise Zehrbach and June Mansfield. The house manager was Horace Pearce and the ushers were Robert Pollock, Joe Johnson, Floyd Bradd, Gene Edmonds, Roland Begor and Dan Cumming.

The second play given by the Dramatics Club this year was a Christmas play, "The Second Marriage of Santa Claus," by John Kirkpatrick." It was also presented at Langley Field. This play was a mixture of realism and fantasy. The author displays the lack of true sentiment in modern Christmas. It was introduced by a Mother whose nerves and temper are frayed by shopping and senseless barter and exchange of presents, a father who growls over the needless expenses of Yuletide, and a young girl whose romance is all but wrecked by the misdirected generosity of her Aunt. Only the young man and Emmy seem to know what Christmas is really for and only when Emmy elopes with Santa Claus are we given some hope that commercialism may some day cease to surround the Birthday of our Saviour. The cast was as follows: Henley Powell, Henry Ammer, Horace Pearce, Mary Lou Payne, Gaynelle Nixon, George Heflin. The Stage Manager was Edgar Peters and the properties were handled by Robert Pollock.

The next play to be presented by the Dramatics Club was combined with the Senior Class. It was "Spring Fever" by Glenn Hughes. It is a snappy comedy centered around the pre-graduation days at college. It takes place at Brookfield College, a small co-educational college. The boys of the rooming house manhandled a rich endower, who intends to withdraw his endowment, and in so doing cause one student not to get his degree, but he comes around when his daughter plays sick. The college gets the endowment, the boy gets the degree and the endower gets a son-in-law.

The cast was as follows: Douglas Broad, David Larner, Thomas Whiting, Phil James, Bruce Wood, Ernest Johnson, Dolores Walker, Florence Timberlake, Gaynelle Nixon, Georgetta Stacey, Kate Thompson, Arleigh Simpson and Dorothy Tappen.

Horace Pearce was Student Director and the Business Staff was as follows: Manager, Ann Wilson; Assistants, Glen Salisbury, Frances Gwin, Priscilla Johnson, Shirley Staples; Stage Manager, Ed Peters; Assistants, Harry Hall, Robert Pollock; Electrician, Bob White; Publicity Manager, Vivian Strailman; Assistants, Evelyn DeRyder, Dorothy Lambert, Julia Forrest, Courtney Carter; Sales Manager, William Thigpen; Assistants, Erah Hatten, Leah Levin, Jean Phillips, Christie Kraft, Betty Tucker; Make-up, Sara Hoover; Assistants, Jean Reese, Virginia Crenshaw, Rosalind Marshall; Wardrobe, Iris Haywood, Allen Wright; Properties, Margaret Spencer and John Hatten. The House Manager was Joe Ankeney.

The Dramatics Club also presented two one-act plays for the commencement exercises.

In addition to the Garrick Dramatics Club, Hampton High School is affiliated with the National Thespians. Membership in the National Thespians is the highest dramatic honor that high school students can obtain. It is the only national fraternity in the high school. A minimum of twenty dramatic credits, or two major and one minor roles, is required for election.

HAMPTON 26—CRADOCK 0

Opening with a great show of power the Crabbers drove four touchdowns across in the first half. Kicking on the first down, time after time during the second half the Crabbers contented themselves with frequent substitutions, a total of 31 players seeing service during the game.

HAMPTON 6—BENEDICTINE 0

A lone score by James in the second quarter set up the Crabbers victory over Benedictine. Several Benedictine threats were stopped with just inches to go for the payoff. The mighty Crabber line held Benedictine time and time again on our 1 yard line to take over the ball on downs.

HAMPTON 0—MAURY 13

Being unable to penetrate the Crabbers stout forward wall the Commodores took to the air and passed to a 13-0 victory. Smashing down to the Crabbers one yard line late in the last period Maury again failed to penetrate the line for a score and lost the ball on downs. Fighting valiently to the end, the red and white gridders bowed to the heavier Maury team.

HAMPTON 0—McGUIRE 0

Playing between the two 30 yard lines, two well balanced teams battled to a scoreless deadlock. Playing fullback, Pearce made the only brilliant run of the game, netting 45 yards on a pass interception. Frequent penalties and fumbles marred and slowed the game.

HAMPTON 0—THOMAS JEFFERSON 13

Sparked by Delaney a hot Teejay team downed the valiently fighting Crabbers to the tune of 13-0. Filling the air with passes during the closing minutes the Hamptonians succeeded in driving to the Teejay 22 before the gun sounded.

HAMPTON 6—HOPEWELL 6

Two well balanced teams, both scoring in the third quarter, fought to a 6-6 tie. James passing to Bowman marked the 6 points for Hampton. Dough Pritchard, sprinted around end behind perfect interference, dashed 68 yards to score for the Blue Devils. In spite of this long run the total ground gained amounted to only 2 yards more than that marched over by the Crabbers.

HAMPTON 0—GRANBY 0

Although outweighed and supposedly outclassed the Hampton High Crabbers held the Granby Blue Comets to a scoreless deadlock. Guy, quarterback of Granby, raced around end for an apparent score which was nullified by a back-field in motion penalty. Frequent fumbles by the Blue Comets stopped their scoring threats.

HAMPTON 0—WILSON 6

Turning back two Wilson threats for touchdowns but allowing Yon to slip through accounted for the 0-6 score. The second President drive was climaxed by an incomplete field goal which was the only other close scoring opportunity of the day.

HAMPTON 0—NEWPORT NEWS 0

Surprising the Shipbuilders with a stout forward wall the Crabbers held Newport News to a 0-0 stalemate. Williams dropping Woolard's pass in the end zone sabotaged the Shipbuilders scoring ambition.

Basketball Summary

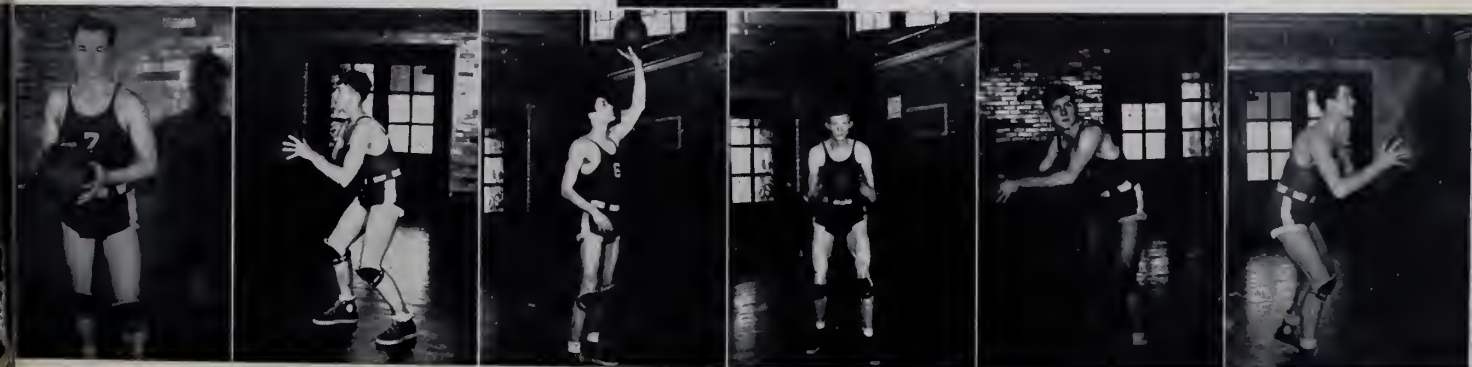

The Hampton High School basketball team, captained by Phil James, "Chigger" Bowman and Chuck McGehee had a very successful season, despite the "Hard Luck Western Trip" which cost the team two stars, James and Hutchins. James was lost for the rest of the season while Hutchins was unable to play for three games due to infected glands. During the Woodrow Wilson game Bowman was lost to the team with a sprained ankle. Even without these stars the team put up a hot battle in the Eastern Conference. The Crabbers kept the leadership until the Commodores defeated them in their first setback.

Matthew Whaley, Woodrow Wilson and Granby, each went down twice before the crushing offensive of the Hampton hardwood pouncers.

Outscoring the opponents by large margins in their winning games and losing by narrow margins, several times by only one point, the Crabber quintet outscored the total opponents by almost fifty points.

Winning a total of nine games and losing only ten, the Crabbers split games with Suffolk, Newport News High School and Thomas Jefferson.

This was the first year that the Hampton High School Junior Varsity competed with the Junior Varsities of the schools the Varsity played.

Tennis has made rapid strides under the able leadership of Coach Stephen Acierno. The team, made up mostly of Sophomores and Juniors, has been able to emerge victorious in two encounters. Against Class "A" competition, the team has shown great possibilities for the future and is awaiting the coming season with increased confidence and will to win.

Krabba Feature Office

(For information dial Pennsylvania 6500000000000000)

The picture of Andy on S. S. page is true action. (Believe it or not).

Will somebody please show Newport News Students the basketball on the S. S. page.

We were surprised to catch Toni Willock with a chemistry paper in her hand.

We wonder if Bobby Woods was looking at Mr. Musselman when this picture was snapped.

The bottles on the Dramatics page are High Rock left over from initiation. (They're not what you think they are.)

Where were all the students when the parade went by?

We wonder if this is the last picture of Chigger Bowman in a H. H. S. uniform we will get.

We didn't know one boy could take care of three girls, can Bob White take care of L. M., D. D., and F. L. T.

Is this how Miss Smith directs her choir or is she yelling at them?

Ask Mr. Musselman why he had such a big grin on his face in the Science Club picture.

All of us should be proud of the trophies we have won in the last year as shown in the picture on the S. S. page.

Is Virginia Crenshaw really the all round girl as she seems to be on the S. S. page?

Don't ask Horace how many years he was at H. H. S. before he got his "H".

Wonder why "Fishy" Ruggles wasn't focussing that picture for Mr. Gibson?

It certainly looks as if Gaynelle and Donald are standing on top of the world.

Wonder what happened to our bashful Courtney, just look at that grin.

We want to pay tribute to the second team football squad for standing by this last season so we placed their pictures in the deserving place.

Again we are proud of some of our students. Alice Taylor and Harry Waters took top honors at the State Latin tournament at Richmond. Also Vivian Sealey and Frances Gwin took honors at Fredericksburg in a State commercial tournament.

We can see by last years schedule that the "pep" talk by Coach Eason did some good.

If you can't guess who that was holding a cup (paper) in the picture on the Dramatics Club page I'll tell you. It's Mr. Lewis.

I am sure that the picture of H. H. S. on the snap page is a familiar sight to many as they come to school.

Some of the teachers have been complaining about the faculty picture but is it the camera or ???????

Speaking for the Student body we want to thank the Dramatics Club for the new stage curtains they are going to present to the school from this year's club.

If this be slander make the most of it. For complaints address anywhere between 18th and 19th on Chestnut Street.
